Advocacy to Host Regulatory Reform Roundtable for National Small Business Week in Sacramento, CA

WASHINGTON, D.C. – On Wednesday, May 2, the Office of Advocacy of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) will host a Regulatory Reform Roundtable in Sacramento, Calif. The roundtable is an official event of SBA's National Small Business Week in Sacramento. The event will be held from 8 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. PDT at the SAFE Credit Union – Corporate Headquarters, 2295 Iron Point Rd., Ste. 100.

The purpose of this event is to gain valuable insight into which specific federal regulatory burdens present the biggest barriers to small business growth. With these recommendations, Advocacy can better assist federal agencies in complying with President Trump's directives to reduce burdensome regulations. Additionally, information compiled from this roundtable and others will help Advocacy generate a report informing Congress and the public of the top regulatory issues for small businesses.

"The Office of Advocacy plays a crucial role in supporting our nation's small businesses," said Major L. Clark III, Acting Chief Counsel for Advocacy. "Holding these regional roundtables to hear concerns directly from small business owners is a key component in our efforts to help lessen the heavy regulatory burden on small business."

This event is free and open to the public. If you would like to attend, please register at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/sba-office-of-advocacy-regional-regulatory-roundtable-sacramento-ca-tickets-45209244066>

If you are unable to attend this event, but would still like to inform Advocacy of a regulatory issue that is important to you, please do so here: <https://www.sba.gov/advocacy/regulatory-reform-input>

Created by Congress in 1976, the Office of Advocacy of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is an independent voice for small business within the federal government. Appointed by the President and confirmed by the U.S. Senate, the Chief Counsel for Advocacy directs the office. The Chief Counsel advances the views, concerns, and interests of small business before Congress, the White House, federal agencies, federal courts, and state policy makers. Economic research, policy analyses, and small business outreach help identify issues of concern. Regional Advocates and an office in Washington, DC, support the Chief Counsel's efforts. For more information on the Office of Advocacy, visit www.sba.gov/advocacy, or call (202) 205-6533.
